Essay (Literature)

"You are going to live a good and long life filled with great and terrible moments that you cannot even imagine yet!" - Hazel Grace

This quotation explains life. Life is a long race that has an end, where you will have to run, you will fall with little and big obstacles; but to win you have to fight, to learn new things and if you fall, you will have to get up and continue. All lives are different. While many people use the stairs, other people use the elevator.

Nobody can imagine what will happen in the future. Life is not always what you expect. To win life, you have to live it, feel it, and wait for the good and bad moments to come.

Why worry about the future and what will come? Live the present, and be prepared for the future. Obviously, someday, your rollercoaster will go down and you will probably not be prepared for bad things. But that is life: unexpected, full of joy and full of obstacles. And you have to enjoy it.

In conclusion, Hazel Grace was right. Life is not perfect.

You will cry, feel depressed, feel happy. And you cannot imagine your destiny, because we are humans, and we do not have a destiny ball in our hands.

Excellent!!

Very mature piece of writing.

CONGRATULATIONS JOSE!!
